Dear Mr. Dulles

First I want to report that I have another nominee for your Advisory Committee: Edward Stanley, Public Affairs & Education, National Broadcasting Company, Inc. RCA Building, Radio City, New York 20, N.Y. (Circle 7-8300). Mr. Stanley has the background and type of mind that qualify him. He will be in Washington Wednesday, May 16 and will telephone you for an appointment. If you care to see him and will be available, you will know what it's about. He is well known by the General and I believe you had several conversations with him before you went to Switzerland. He is the last of my candidates for your committee.

Second, if General Ridgway's estimate that we have seen the high tide of Communist aggression in Korea is correct, it seems to me that we can expect some repercussions around the world, particularly behind the Iron Curtain and that we may be seeing - to borrow Churchill's phrase - the end of the beginning. If the assumption is correct, it seems to me that now is the time to really open up with operations; up till now the time was not propitious, but the stage may be set for serious action.

I hope to hear from you regarding the first meeting.

Yours sincerely,

Eugene Warner

Dear Gene:

Many thanks for your letter of May 11, 1951. I am hoping to get up to New York for an evening so that we can get together the persons whom you have suggested as helpful in the field of our mutual interest. I shall let you know when my plans are more definite. Many thanks.

Sincerely yours,

Allen W. Dulles
